Results, Events Calendar, News, and more

I have to start this month with an acknowledgement of a mistake in the last issue of the gazette as we incorrectly placed a photo of Graham Brundle alongside the Don French obituary. I apologise to both families for any upset, and I'm pleased to say that Graham Brundle is still very much alive.

Foreword

Phil Armes

The Norwich Vikings once again put on a superb round of the Maxxis British Motocross Championship at Lyng, and the women's races were well supported, and very competitive – let's hope this is the start of a positive development of a British Championship class in the near future. And while on the subject of the ACU's blue riband series, the Woodbridge club will be hosting a round on June 2nd, when I am sure they will be maintaining the standard that has seen them receive the award for the best organised round for the last three years.

The following weekend GW Racing will be hosting the ACU Eastern Grasstrack championship at Gosbeck. They always put on a good event and I'm sure this year will be no different, with classes right across the age range.

I could possibly be taken to task for my regular updates about young road racer Ryan Vickers, but I feel it would be remiss not to mention that in the opening two rounds of this year's British Superbike Championship the young man from Thetford has ridden to four points scoring finishes from four races in his debut season. A tremendous achievement after stepping up from the Superstock 600cc class, to ride the Swaffham based RAF Regular & Reserves Kawasaki in arguably the world's best domestic road race series. I just hope I haven't put my usual Editor's curse on him when he rides at round three at Donington Park.

It's good to see two speedway teams from our Centre in the Premiership this season, although they couldn't have had more contrasting starts to the new campaign. King's Lynn Stars have yet to record a win, which is surprising given their terrific 2018 season; while Ipswich Witches currently sit top of the table after the opening four matches. Will be interesting to see who ends up with the local bragging rights come the end of the summer.

At the recent board meeting it was decided to reduce the number of board meetings during the year from four down to two, and include a third meeting which will concentrate solely on how to encourage more people to engage with running events, and the centre, once they have 'hung up' their helmet. There is nothing new about the lack of people prepared to give up their time in this manner, but I hope that by dedicating some proper time and effort into this situation we can come up with some positive solutions.

Recollection Section

Sidge Kenny

The recent demonstrations of those wishing to speed up the reduction of our world-wide; “carbon footprint,” to quell the evident climate changes we have experienced around the planet, caused a fair bit of inconvenience in London and of course because of this disruptive action, made the headlines. The objective of “Extinction Rebellion” (XR) is stated to provide a cleaner and safer world for us all to live in – and they declare it is imperative to get the carbon levels down quickly.. I must admit, I do to great extent, agree with these objectives but I feel decidedly wary where this all might lead should this campaign gain greater momentum.. Their aim in seeking for lower carbon levels, originally felt to be reachable by the middle of this century, is that they are needed to be in force by 2025 - which seems a very big ask.

A major factor which has propelled this movement is the inclusion of under-voter youth, or rather, youngsters still at school, demanding a cleaner world to live in. Perfectly reasonable but is it actually deliverable in the time scale they demand – and along the line, are we who indulge in a sport which largely burns fossil fuels, going to be highlighted and damned under the weight of hostile opinion? There is no one as passionate as those following single issues in politics, as the suffragettes and latterly the animal rights supporters and anti-hunting leaguers illustrate. Therefore are we to suffer such protests at any of our meetings should this issue gain greater public support? Sustained pressure has been seen to bear results and the protesters have stated they will act again. If the Government does eventually respond to their demands and true logic was to be applied to the question, all motor sport that does not employ electric vehicles would be stopped forthwith, but logic and politics do not always chime in tune – as recent events have illustrated. Yet, I could well imagine the finger being pointed in our direction, as opposed to say, Formula 1, which would probably be considered too big and too prestigious to question. Our particular sector of motor sport is a much easier target, being largely contested by amateurs..

My answer to any avid conservationists who would like to do their best to pull the plug on our activities by 2025 - or earlier - would be to point out that our sport is indeed doing its best to get electrified. Note the T.T “Zero” races - which never get enough publicity - and the introduction of electric bikes in trials and other off-road disciplines. I would then have to add that they might care to “get real” and simply analyse just how much fuel we burn in our sport compared to other areas of motor mobility. It is a very modest figure – compared to say, air transportation, where long haul flight fuel consumption is rated at tonnes of fuel per hour. (a tonne of fuel is around 315 gallons.) A Boeing 747 doing a regular Atlantic crossing would burn around 80 - 90 tonnes of fuel. Get the green bods to do the maths...

And – this is just my own opinion on the future well being of our: “Life Boat Earth” which supports humankind in its billions, is simply:- “Yes, we must indeed clean up the planet as best we can – but ultimately, you younger people and the generations to come, may also have to do your bit by producing fewer children....”

The child does not suffer from any physical, medical or mental disability which would make it unsafe for him/her to participate either as a Competitor or for Practice. I accept that it is my responsibility to ensure that the child and I have had the opportunity to read and understand the National Sporting Code of the ACU, Standing Regulations, Supplementary Regulations and Final Instructions subsequently issued and this Entry Form and that he/she will comply with them. I accept that photographs or video films may be taken of my child by officials dealing with safety issues or accident investigations. Photographs may also be taken for promotional purposes and may appear on the ACU website or in ACU publications.

The Bramford Inferno

Paper Mill Lane in Bramford, Suffolk, has hosted in its day, many memorable trials. However in early May, it hit the headlines for a totally different reason. A massive fire which has virtually destroyed the former Fisons fertilizer premises – a listed Victorian building and revered by the population of the village.

Not many of our members will know that Mr M.R.W. Fison of the same family, was President of the Centre just before and after the second world war. He resigned owing to business pressures, in 1949. In the 1930's, he had been both Centre Secretary and Centre delegate to the ACU. He was also an official at the first speedway meeting, held at High Beech, Essex, in 1928.

Surprisingly, the month of May was quiet as far as motocross in our region is concerned. Unfortunately, gone are the days when there were around more than a dozen clubs running meetings in the Eastern centre, which meant that there was a race meeting almost every Sunday. Lack of venues, and a shortage of club personnel are two of the main reasons for this.

As far as club's running meetings for adults this year, we are unfortunately down to four clubs for 2019, Diss, Halstead, Norwich Vikings and Woodbridge. Even the lads at Braintree, who normally host a meeting at Stisted are thwarted this year, as the land is not available. Hopefully, they will be back in 2020.

The Diss club's first meeting at their lovely Wattisfield Hall venue, saw round two of the British Clubmans Sidecarcross taking place, as well as round three of the well supported NGR over 30's championships taking place, plus two supporting solo allcomers groups. Racing in all twelve races was closely fought, and the sidecar crews put on a great show for the decent sized crowd. In the NGR's, Diss club rider, Aaron Hopkins took the overall win, but he was made to work hard for the win, with Liam Walker, Will Kerry and Matt French all in contention.

St Albans teenager, Tom Grimshaw, took the overall win in the allcomers. Tom was racing at Canada Heights on the previous day in the British championships, and battled all day with Ben Cole, Jason Morland and Luke Parker, who was riding his gas gas enduro bike. It was good to see the former Eastern champion having a rare outing at a motocross meeting.

The Norfolk and Suffolk club had a two day meeting in May at Hockham, and were rewarded with a decent entry.

The MX Nationals arrived at Lyng for their two day meeting, news on that next month. The Vikings are running round two of the Bickers Lifting/Stebbing's Car Superstore sponsored Eastern championships at Lyng on 16th of June, and we continue to boast that the Eastern centre is still the most popular and well supported region for ACU motocross meetings. The online entry system was full of 160 junior grade riders in a record time of four minutes ! Andrew Hay is keeping a list of reserves, so hopefully there will not be too many disappointed riders on the day.

Before that, the Woodbridge club are hosting round four of the ACU British championships at Blaxhall on June 2nd. The whole facility once again, looks immaculate, thanks to the hard working dedicated crew who spends more time at Blaxhall than they do at their own homes !

Although two of the regions top riders, Jake Nicholls and Elliott Banks-Browne, are still out of action, Lewis Tombs continues to shine on his Buildbase Honda, and at present holds third place in the British Championships, as well as getting good results at other national events. Hopefully, our other local guys will be battling at the front at Blaxhall, and it is good that current Eastern champion, Shaun Southgate is back in action, following his collar bone injury.
